After following the due procedure by referring and obtaining the opinion of the Advisory Board, the detention orders were confirmed vide reference 3rd read above.

2. Smt. Lova Lakshmi, Wife of Sri Chitikela Suribabu, Visakhapatnam Dist. in her representation 4th read above, has submitted that the Collector & District Magistrate, Visakhapatnam has passed detention order against her husband basing on the ground that he is a "Drug Offender" within the meaning of Section 2(f) of A.P.P.D. Act and his activities are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. She has submitted that the detention Order passed by the Collector & District Magistrate, Visakhapatnam in a mechanical manner on vague, irrelevant and non-existing grounds. The order of detention clearly shows that in most of the cases referred in the grounds of detention, involvement and participation of the detenue was shown basing on the alleged confessions. The participation of her husband was shown in the said cases basing on the alleged confessional statements clearly raises suspicion over the genuineness of the allegations mentioned in the order of detention. The district police supplied false information about her husband. Further, she has submitted that the order of detention was issued based on five cases referred in grounds of detention and that in all most of all the cases the detenue was granted bails with necessary conditions. And bail applications, orders and other material relating to the detenue were not supplied to the detenue for making proper representation. She has requested that there are no merits in the order of detention passed against her husband by the Collector & District Magistrate, Visakhapatnam and the same may be set-aside.
